WINDLE TELLS WHY PROHIBITION IS WRONG.

Great Audience Greeted and Cheers Chicago Orator.

Windle Proved Prohibition To Be Wrong in Principle, Opposed to Nature, Unchristian in Character, a Quack Remedy For Intemperance, Contrary to Reason, An Insult to Manhood, Destructive of Human Equality, An Immoral Proposition, A Menace To True Religion, A Blow at the Basis of Morality, And Antagonistic to the Divine Order.

Hon. C. A. Windle, of Chicago, Editor of Brann's Iconoclast addressed a magnificent meeting at the Woodland Auditorium, in Lexington, Sunday night. The house was packed to capacity long before 8 o'clock, and more than a thousand people were turned away unable to gain admission. Mr. Windle spoke for nearly two hours and his speech was listened to throughout with the most respectful attention. He was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause as he drove home some of his salient points against prohibition. His speech follows in full:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

As I look out upon this magnificent audience of splendid men and women, it thrills me to know that I am about to address the citizens of the Athens of America—a city that gave to fame and glory a galaxy of the greatest orators that ever lived. But I do not appear before you for the purpose of paying tribute to your illustrious dead, but to appeal to the living in the name of justice, truth, right and reason.

In this plea I shall not seek to arouse passion, prejudice, or stir up partisan rancor, but shall rest my cause upon logic and facts.

Let it be understood in the beginning that I am not opposed to temperance.

Temperance has to do with your control of yourself. It is right. Prohibition has to do with some other man's control of you. It is wrong.

Temperance is self-imposed and self-controlled. Prohibition is imposed by others without your consent, in spite of your protest, and enforced with a policeman's club.

Temperance always implies use, but forbids abuse. Prohibition forbids use even in moderation.

Therefore, if temperance is right, prohibition is wrong.

Every plea for temperance is an indictment of prohibition. When two principles are fundamental and eternally opposed to each other, both can not be right.

People who stand for right cannot support a policy that is wrong in principle.

No Christian can support a movement that is un-Christian in character.

No sincere advocate of true temperance can afford to stand for a quack remedy for intemperance.

Contrary To Reason.

Prohibition is contrary to reason. Every proposition that is fundamentally right can be reconciled with common sense. It never can be reasonable to prohibit anything the use of which is proper, but the abuse of which may result in evil.

If it were reasonable to prohibit anything because its use is abused, it would be necessary to prohibit all good. Every good thing in this world is abused by some people. To forbid the use of the good because of this fact would not only be unreasonable, but idiotic.

If the logic of prohibition is reasonable then it would be proper to prohibit the use of money. The abuse of money is a prolific source of crime. The right to free speech leads to constant abuse and great evil. Is it reasonable to prohibit free speech because of this fact?

In the third chapter of St. James, verses 6 and 9, we read:

"And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity; so is the tongue among our members that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell."

"For every kind of beast and of birds and of serpents and of things in the sea, is tamed and hath been tamed of mankind; but the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God."

If the logic of prohibition is sound,

Wet Vote Does Not Change Dry Precinct.

Many voters, living in local option precincts want to keep their precincts under local option, but do not want to force prohibition on the county as a whole.

Such voters may safely vote against prohibition in the county unit election, because even if the county votes against prohibition, those precincts that are now "dry" will stay "dry."

This is the law and has been upheld by the Court of Appeals.

Under date of July 28, 1914, the Attorney General's office gives this confirmation:

OFFICE OF

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Frankfort, Ky.

July 28, 1914

Dear Sir:—

In yours of the 28th you correctly state the law in regard to local option elections on dry towns and precincts.

If a precinct or town has separately put into effect the local option laws, such town or precinct cannot become wet because the county as a whole votes wet.

Yours very truly,

M. M. LOGAN,
Assistant Attorney General.

DEATHS.

COLLINS.

—Mr. Albert Collins, aged 68, died at his home near Jacksonville, this county, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock of heart failure. He had apparently been in good health up to the time of the fatal attack. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Collins, of this county, six daughters, Mrs. Lydia Slack, Scott county; Mrs. Emma Moore, Woodford county; Mrs. Lucille Moore, Paris; Mrs. Lurina Quinlan, Paris; Mrs. Mattie Jones, Harrison county; Mrs. Angie Moore, Bourbon county; two sons, Mr. Lee Collins, Fayette county, Stoll Collins, Bourbon county.

The funeral will be held at the grave in the old Lee Smith burial ground, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. Jones.

GILTNER.

—Mrs. A. L. Giltner, aged 70 years, a well-known resident of the Hutchinson precinct for years, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Cystis L. Talbott, in this city, Wednesday night, after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Giltner was formerly Miss Isabel Hilton Collins, of Louisville, and after her marriage to Mr. Giltner, removed to the farm in the Hutchinson precinct, where she resided continuously until a few years ago, when she came to reside with her daughter, Mrs. Talbott.

She is survived by two children, Mrs. Cystis L. Talbott and Mr. Wm. H. Giltner, the latter of Lexington; one brother, Mr. Hilton Collins and one sister, Mrs. Van Ruff, both of Louisville.

The funeral will take place at the residence on Houston Avenue; this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, with the services conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, assisted by Rev. R. W. Wallace. Burial in Paris Cemetery. The pallbearers will be Robt. Meteer, Forrest Letton, O. B. Lloyd, James D. McClintock, Denis Dundon, Fayette Ardery.

TALBOTT.

—Following an operation which was performed at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, for gall stones, Mrs. Robert C. Talbott, of this city, died in that institution, where she had been taken several days ago, critically ill, at 4 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon.

Several days ago Mrs. Talbott went to Lexington to visit Mrs. J. Matt Hedges, and was taken suddenly ill. Medical assistance was promptly rendered, and her home physician, Dr. W. C. Ussery, was summoned. It was decided that an operation was imperative. This was performed, and it was thought that the patient was doing nicely, having rallied from the effects of the operation. But on Wednesday she suffered a relapse, and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon the end came.

Mrs. Talbott was the younger of two daughters of the late William and Elizabeth Hedges Grimes, of Bourbon County. After the death of Mr. Grimes, Mrs. Grimes moved to Paris with her daughters and lived on Duncan Avenue, where Mrs. Talbott continued to reside until a few years ago, when the family moved to a farm near Austerlitz, in this county.

Mrs. Talbott is survived by her husband, one of the best known attorneys in the State, and a partner of Hon. Robert Franklin and W. H. Whitley; by four daughters, Mrs. Wade H. Whitley, of Paris; Mrs. Virgil Gaitskill, Misses Mary Adams Talbott and Anna McMillan Talbott, and one son, Robert Talbott, Jr., all of whom live at Austerlitz, and one devoted sister, Miss Elizabeth Grimes, who makes her home with the Talbott family. Three young grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Talbott was one of the most prominent and popular women in Bourbon County. She was actively interested in every movement for the improvement of the community, a devoted member of the Christian Church and its societies, the C. W. B. M. and the Women's Society, regent of the local chapter of D. A. R., a prominent club woman, a member of the Paris Literary Club and also of the W. C. T. U. But she was especially interested in her large family, attending personally to the education and development of her children, allowing nothing to interfere with her care of them.

In the passing away of Mrs. Talbott, Paris and Bourbon county loses one of its most lovable characters. She was good, not artificial piety, but good in the deep strength of the fundamental virtues that make good women. Her goodness lay in the strength of her humanities. Her love was strong but beautiful because it was loyal.

Her kindness to the weak, the sick, was sweet to know. There was no method in it. It simply pushed her to continued helpfulness and thoughtfulness for the sorrow of others. Whatever or whoever was weak or unfortunate or treated unjustly was a challenge to her which she took up instantly.

The deep sanctities of her nature were not the kind that lead to isolation; they were the kind to live with. Those who saw her daily were the ones who loved her most. She was the sort of human being one would turn to in trouble, whether you were sinner or sinned against, and be sure of a defense and a welcome. Her heart was very great and wide, and whoever lodged there was never cast out.

Funeral services will be conducted at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Wade H. Whitley, this afternoon, at 5 o'clock. Burial in the Paris Cemetery. The pallbearers will be: W. F. Talbott, J. Matt Hedges, T. H. Gaitskill, Henry Power, James McClure, Silas Bedford, Jos. H. Ewalt, Chas. N. Fithian.

Remarkable in every way is the great success of D'Annunzio's "Cabiria," which will be at the Ben Ali Theatre, Lexington, August 31, and which is demonstrating anew the great popular interest in this class of amusement, the photo spectacle. Owing to the capacity of the Ben Ali, "Cabiria" is playing to a greater number of people than have ever witnessed a motion picture show here and the vogue does not seem to be confined to this metropolis alone, as the same results have been obtained wherever this film has been exhibited.

Long before the American presentation word came from Europe of the sensational records of "Cabiria" in the leading Grand Opera Houses of Italy, Spain and Germany, and its premiere in France is scheduled for this month at the new Opera Champs Elysees, in Paris.

The only other booking for this stupendous photo-spectacle during the summer will be San Francisco, Salt Lake City and Cleveland. In the latter city Mr. E. F. Albee has placed the Keith's Hippodrome at Messrs. Werba and Luescher's disposal; in San Francisco it is to be presented in co-operation with Mr. Fred Belasco at the Gaiety, and in Salt Lake City it has been secured through strong Mormon interests and will be presented at the Utah Theatre with the famous tabernacle chorus and a symphony orchestra accompaniment.

During the coming season ten companies will tour throughout America with a complete organization, large orchestra and chorus and with all the dignity and importance of a tremendous dramatic spectacle such as "Mist" or "Ben Hur" in the high class theatres. Reserved seats at all performances. (adv)
